For the purpose of these rules: a negotiated plea is one in which the prosecution has bound itself to recommend a specific sentence, or specific range of sentence, or where the prosecution has made concessions relating to the sentence to be imposed and not merely to the charge or charges then pending.

605(b) Judgment and Sentence Entered on a Plea of Guilty

Pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 605(b), at the time of imposing sentence the Court advised the defendant in open court that he / she has the following rights on appeal:

1. That the defendant has a right to appeal;
2. That prior to taking an appeal the defendant must file in the trial court, within thirty (30) days of the date on which sentence is imposed, a written motion asking to have the trial court reconsider the sentence or to have the judgment vacated and for leave to withdraw the plea of guilty, setting forth the grounds for the motion;
3. That if the motion is allowed, the sentence will be modified or the plea of guilty, sentence and judgment will be vacated and a trial date will be set on the charges to which the plea of guilty was made;
4. That upon the request of the State any charges that may have been dismissed as part of a plea agreement will be reinstated and will also be set for trial;
5. That if the defendant is indigent, a copy of the transcript of the proceedings at the time of the defendant's plea of guilty and sentence will be provided without cost to the defendant and counsel will be appointed to assist the defendant with the preparation of the motions; and
6. That in any appeal taken from the judgment on the plea of guilty any issue or claim of error not raised in the motion to reconsider the sentence or to vacate the judgment and to withdraw the plea of guilty shall be deemed waived.
