

PETITION TO REVOKE

NEGOTIATED ADMISSION

How old are you?

How far
have you
gone in school?

Are you able to read and write?

Do you suffer from any sort of Mental or Physical Impairment
that affects your ability to proceed in court?

Are you under the influence of any
drugs or alcohol?

Have you had the opportunity to discuss these matters
with your attorney?

QUESTION FOR THE ATTORNEYS

To what allegations will the defendant be admitting?

{Review the minimum
and maximum
penalties for the underlying charge}

The terms of the negotiated
agreement are:

Is that your understanding
of the agreement?

Is that how you want
to proceed?

If you are not a citizen of the United States, you are advised that a conviction for this offense may have the consequence of deportation, exclusion from the United States, or denial of naturalization under the laws of the United States.

You have the right to persist in your Denial and to proceed to trial.

The State would need to prove that you are guilty by preponderance of the evidence.

You would have the right to cross-examine witnesses and to call witnesses in your own behalf.

You would have the right
to testify.

You would have the right to remain silent if asked questions tending to incriminate you in any other proceedings.

Do you understand
that by admitting the Petition you are waiving
all of these rights?

Has anyone threatened
you in any way to
cause you to make the admission?

Has anyone offered
you anything other
than what has been stated here
in open court?

Are you doing
this of your own
free will?

I will accept the admission
as knowingly,
understandably,
and voluntarily made.

The Defendant is
sentenced as agreed.

You have a right to appeal.

Prior to taking an appeal you must file in this court within 30 days of today, a written motion asking to have the judgment vacated and for permission to withdraw your admission.

Your motion must set forth all the
grounds or reasons
for the motion.

As a negotiated plea,
you do not have
a right to request that the sentence be reconsidered.

If your motion is granted,
the admission, sentence
and judgment will be vacated.

A hearing date
will then be set.

If the Motion to Vacate the Judgment and Withdraw your Admission is denied and you still desire to appeal, you must file your Notice of Appeal within 30 days of the date that motion was denied.

If you are indigent, a copy of the transcript of the proceedings at the time of the admission and sentence will be provided without cost. Also, counsel will be appointed to assist you with the preparation of the motions.

If any appeal is taken from the judgment on the admission to the Petition - any issue or claim of error not raised in the motion to vacate the judgment and to withdraw the admission - shall be deemed waived.

Do you understand
these rights?
