

WEDDING SCRIPT

TO THE GROOM:

Do you take this woman to be your wife? To live together in the state of matrimony? Will you love her, honor her and keep yourself only for her for as long as you live?

TO THE BRIDE:

Do you take this man to be your husband? To live together in the state of matrimony? Will you love him, honor him and keep yourself only for him for as long as you live?

TO THE GROOM: Repeat after me:

- I take you as my wife
- From this day forward
- For better or for worse
- For richer or for poorer
- In sickness and in health
- For all the days of my life.

TO THE BRIDE: Repeat after me:

- I take you as my husband
- From this day forward
- For better or for worse
- For richer or for poorer
- In sickness and in health
- For all the days of my life.

IF RINGS.

To the Groom: Place the ring on her finger and repeat after me:

With this ring, ---- You become my wife.

To the Bride: Place the ring on his finger and repeat after me:

With this ring ---- You become my husband.

By the power vested in me by the Constitution of the State of Illinois, I now pronounce you husband and wife.
You may kiss your wife.
